- Mrs. Fairchild, Mrs. Scharsu and I just got back from Pinehurst for the NCPAPA event, we presented how we do our POC's at Woodland heights and we attended other sessions as well.
- Having a Christmas party at Mrs. Spenner's house this year for the staff. Having it catered by Brooklyn Boys.

Business: Lisa Cox

- Events director update- Amber D. is stepping in and helping out
- Hornets game- get tickets!! We need to sell tickets, 125 tickets are sold right now. This year there are 25 spots for the student on court experience, there will be a drawing for this to determine who will get to use these spots.
- HawkFest planning begins in Jan., we had a lot of help last year and there were some areas where we could use more help. More info to come

Budget Update: Katy Hemphill

- We are still doing well with the budget. Katy has not moved HawkFundmoney over from Cheddar Up yet, but will do when time to purchase.

- Outstanding-$470 worth of checks. We have paid the majority of the curriculum spending.

General Updates: Emily D. -

- HawkFund went really well, we raised $20,827.00. We are able to cover all the safety bollards in the back and bollards and planters in front. Safety film, we have had discussions with the resource officers and they feel like this may serve as a slow down deterrent but they are here all the time and able to take action quickly if needed. They do not feel like it is a necessity.
- Movie Night Updates- 577 is the capacity of the gym so we set the # at 200 for the movie night because we need to be able to spread out/move around. There are 30 people on the wait list, should we go ahead and let the people on the waitlist attend? Unanimous yes
- No official sign up for volunteers, hoping we can rotate around for those that can come
- Holiday Cheer Underway- we are getting donations coming in for that. The soaps were donated so that is covered this year. Each support staff member will get soap and an amazon gift card

Staff Appreciation: Christina Baude, for November we did donuts in the staff workrooms, flavored water and frappuccino. In December we are handing out sweatshirts to all staff
